2027 Beginner Beekeeping Class

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is it okay to miss a class?
Yes, you are paying for the class. But you may miss some vital information if you miss class. Your choice.

If my spouse wants to attend, do we need to pay for us both?
Yes, because you will each receive a full set of course materials and because seating is limited.

Can I pay at the door?
No. Because seating is so limited, we have to ask that you pay when you register.

Will we be working with honey bees in class?
No. Hands-on beekeeping experience happens during open hive events and with a mentor when you become a BGES member.

Is there a test during or after the class?
No.

Does my class tuition also buy me a membership?
Yes, until June 30th, 2027 when the Guild's new fiscal year begins. Then dues are $30 per year per household.

Beekeepers Guild of the Eastern Shore